

As an amateur radio emergency coordinator for my county, I think that having some communications back-up form in morse code is essential to being able to serve serve the public. RM-10869 fulfills this requirement.